

My husband and I have enjoyed not being bothered by telemarketers since being put on the Indiana no-call list. I deal with phones all day and hate unsolicited calls during my time. My husband is on call a lot, so having the phone line open is important. PLEASE do not preempt our state our state telephone privacy laws. Thank you for your time and attention.
Mrs.Laurie Dye